

BLEAKLEY PLATT

James W. Glatthaar

Partner

Mr. Glatthaar is a member of our Litigation and Real Estate Practice Groups. He is a former Assistant Corporation Counsel and Deputy Corporation Counsel of the City of White Plains. Mr. Glatthaar has also served on the Judicial Review Committee for White Plains City Court.

Mr. Glatthaar concentrates his practice in the areas of zoning and land use law and litigation, cooperative and condominium law, construction law and real estate litigation. He has represented landlords, tenants, developers, non-profit institutions, sellers, purchasers, realtors, cooperatives and condominiums in building, zoning, housing and disability-based discrimination claims, and construction defect claims both in courts and before state and federal administrative agencies.

Mr. Glatthaar is a continuing legal education lecturer for Lorman Education Services on housing discrimination, landlord/tenant and affordable housing. Mr. Glatthaar has also lectured for the Westchester County Bar Association as part of the Association's continuing legal education program for the Council of Westchester Cooperatives and Condominiums.
