

BLEAKLEY PLATT

Matthew G. Parisi

Partner

Matthew G. Parisi is the head of our Environmental Practice Group and a member of our Litigation and Toxic Tort/Complex Litigation Practice Groups.

Mr. Parisi represents several major companies in complex commercial, toxic tort, products liability and environmental contamination actions filed throughout the United States. He also represents a multi-state petroleum distributor in a mass tort, product liability multi-district litigation pending in the Southern District of New York. Throughout his career, Mr. Parisi has represented area municipalities, corporations and individuals in environmental and zoning disputes, including CERCLA “Superfund” cost recovery actions, RCRA, Clean Water Act and Safe Drinking Water Act lawsuits, and cases involving other local, state and federal environmental laws and regulations. Mr. Parisi has also represented national retail stores, area businesses and individuals in commercial business disputes in state and federal court.

In 2007, Mr. Parisi was honored as a “Rising Star,” one of Westchester County’s “Forty under Forty” by the Business Council of Westchester. Since 2010, Mr. Parisi has been recognized on the New York Super Lawyers (Metro and Westchester Edition) list. He has made legal presentations to business organizations in several states and is the author of published articles on the effects of exposure to electromagnetic fields on individuals and on property values.
