Commercial Finance

The experience, market knowledge and scope of the Commercial Finance Practice Group allow us to offer sophisticated, practical, and cost-effective counsel in commercial financing transactions such as:

- Secured and Unsecured Commercial Lending
- Commercial Loan Restructuring
- Loan Workouts and Bankruptcy
- Foreclosures and Related Litigation
- Lender Liability Litigation

The Group represents domestic and foreign commercial banks and financial institutions, agency lenders, municipalities and borrowers in both traditional acquisition and construction lending, permanent mortgage lending, as well as:

- Lines of Credit
- Mezzanine Financing
- Tax-exempt Bond Financings
- Sale-Leaseback Transactions
- Securitized and Syndicated Loans
- Asset-Based Financings
- Structured Finance Transactions

The Commercial Finance Practice Group provides the depth and scope of legal service that comes from decades of experience in the field representing clients in a broad spectrum of industries in complex transactions. We bring skills and know-how to each financing transaction that few area law firms can match. Our ability to tap legal resources and skills readily available within the Firm's other Practice Groups greatly enhances our effectiveness in structuring and documenting transactions.

Our restructuring and workout experience complements our transactional practice. We are regularly called upon to provide restructuring advice for troubled loans and assets. As circumstances warrant, we work closely with the Firm's litigation, bankruptcy and tax attorneys to provide, under one roof, all of the capabilities and legal resources required to meet our clients' needs.
